Finished with top of the range appliances and offering a profusion of living space and comfortable living year round, you will be more than impressed with this home.

Three bedrooms accommodate one end of the house along with a large three way bathroom with floor to ceiling tiles and more than enough storage space to store your linen and everything else away.

The master bedroom is very substantial and boasts an impressive ensuite with dual vanity and floor to ceiling tiles and includes a walk in wardrobe. Its most impressive feature though is the access to the outdoor entertaining area and its own theatre room.

Family living is an important asset of this home with ample space adjoining the contemporary kitchen which includes stone bench tops, stainless steel gas oven and rangehood, dishwasher, pantry and breakfast bar. What's more all this
