The homestead, circa 1905, is of double brick construction with period features, combining contemporary living with old school charm. An ideal lifestyle property, Airbnb, weekend retreat or both.

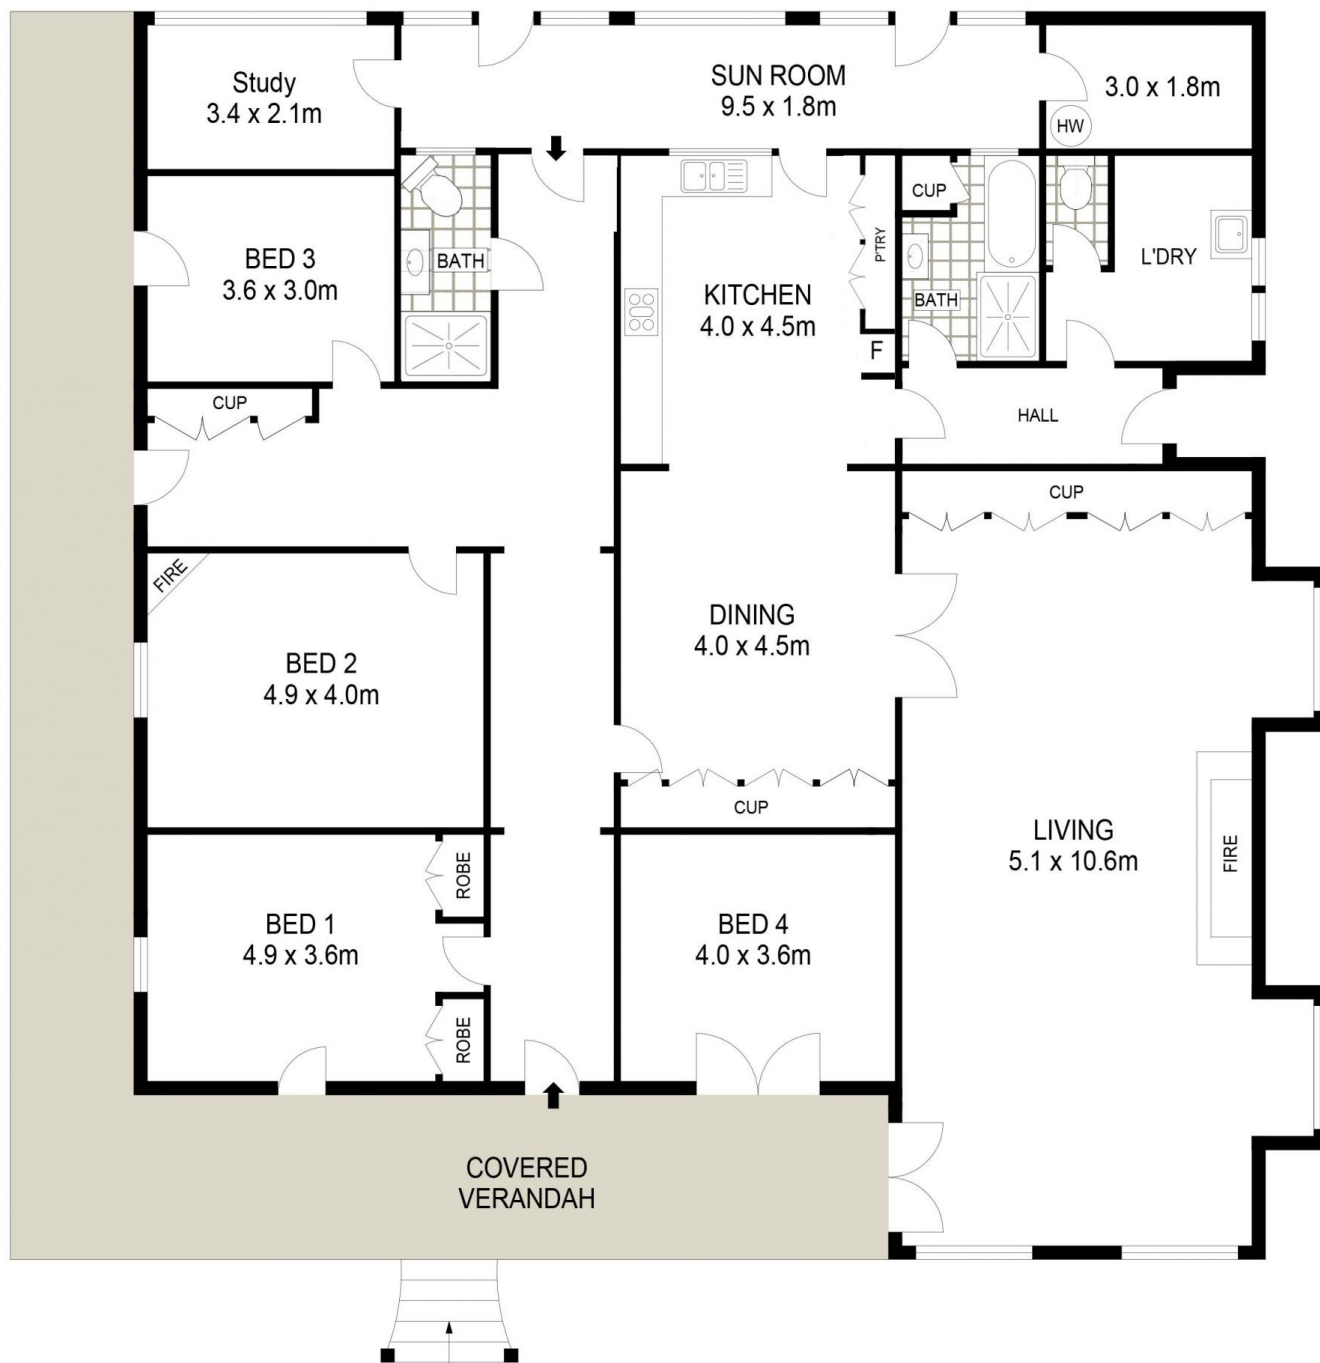

- A double brick home with four large bedrooms, all with views across the landscape.
- The cook's kitchen is open plan and combined dining room with low sheen polished floors
- An oversized living area includes bay window day beds, a large open fireplace and wonderful views overlooking distant farmland, with an abundance of natural light
- Approximately 12 foot high ceilings supported by extravagant arches in the hallways and contributing to the scale of the remaining rooms.
- Spacious original bathroom with cast iron bath tub, vanity sink and shower
- Large laundry with separate WC, - enclosed front veranda
